August Online Bible Study Community

Meet Ann

most of the time.

She's a Busy Wife, Mom, and Friend

She wants to do all the things for all her people. She wants to be all the things for all her people. She also wants to spend some quiet time with Jesus. But you know the old saying, "The squeaky wheel gets the grease," well, her other wheels are a lot squeakier

Where to Start?

When she does finally get or make the time to spend with Jesus, she's not sure where to start? Should she pray? Read her Bible? Which Book? For how long? What if she doesn't understand what she's read?

What if She Had a DOABLE Plan?

What if when Ann sat down for some quiet Jesus time she knew exactly where to start and what to do? And it was doable!

What if her plan included a weekly Facebook Live

Community Bible Study...in her own home...while wearing her comfy clothes--also known as "No bra required!" And if for some reason she missed the Live Chat, she could sit down and watch the replay in her own time, or listen to it while driving carpool?

What if the Doable Plan Was Satisfying and Rewarding?

What if part of Ann's doable plan was writing a few Scripture verses everyday, reading a super short, easy to understand reflection and or meditation question that was actually applicable to her daily life? And by the end of the month, she could flip back through her notebook and see that she had written an entire Book of the Bible!

What if Her Facebook Community Had Weekly Prayer Threads, Regular Encouragement and Fun?

What if when life tried to make Ann lose her balance she had a community of online sisters ready to pray her through, steady her steps, and offer encouraging words?

What if Ann felt brave enough to one night quietly admit she was "behind" in her Bible Study and the Community rallied around her to offer ideas, suggestions, and encouragement to keep going, one little step at a time?

That Community Exists Friends!

I'm inviting you to join our Online Bible Study Community for the month of August. We will be reading through, writing, studying, and learning from the Book of James.

There are daily reflection questions, a Scripture writing plan, weekly Facebook Live chats plus additional regular Live pop-ins for added encouragement. Printable post cards to help you keep focused and a monthly phone lock screen.

Most importantly, there is a community of kind and loving women whose desire to help each other along the way of life.

let it grow

For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow. So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.
